Nawate-Dori

Nawate - Dori is like a Japanese old town. In the past, many frogs lived here and now people want them to come back like the past. So now, the Nawate-Dori's symbols are frogs. There's a store named [Storyhouse Café&bar] with English speakers. I go to the storyhouse sometimes, too. Nawate-Dori is near Matsumoto castle so you can drop by there while visiting the castle.
Please come and enjoy it.

You can drink spring water here. The reason why it is drinkable is local people clean the well early mornings. And also, the environment surrounded with mountains are clean all year round. We have a well called "Genchi no Ido". Since the Edo period, Japanese sakes have been brewed here. However, there are people living nearby. Please drink within the range that does not cause any inconvenience.

13

Asama Onsen

Asama Onsen has many hot springs, and you can take a footbath at no charge. If you're hungry, please go to Kawasho which serves Nagano's specialty, Sanzokuyaki. It's very delicious, please try it.
